DevOps/Sysadmin (m/f/x) Kubernetes (Remote or on-site)

As a DevOps/Sysadmin (m/f/d) you work directly at the heart of our infrastructure, which you improve with your knowledge and ideas. Thousands of virtual servers are created on our platform every day. Become part of a great team, help us master exciting scaling challenges and grow with exciting tasks.

For you, „Infrastructure as Code" is more than just a buzzword! You know how important automation is for complex and distributed systems and enjoy implementing and running them. As a member of our DevOps/Sysadmin team, you value agile working, know how to use your freedom well and contribute your own ideas. You like to share your knowledge with colleagues and you enjoy putting your flashes of inspiration into action and developing them further.

We rely on modern technologies, but do not follow every hype, according to the motto „the right tool for the job". We know how important the right tooling is and therefore continuously improve it. Kubernetes is a central component of our infrastructure.

Our stack in keywords: Kubernetes, Docker, Linux, QEMU, KVM, Ansible, Terraform, Python, Go, PostgreSQL, Redis, Kafka and RabbitMQ.
